Wordless picture books

Anno’s journey by Mitsumasa Anno

The author portrays his travels through Europe, and includes scenes from different time periods and stories.

Belonging, by Jeannie Baker

The view from a window shows the changes in a neighbourhood from before a girl is born until she is an adult, as it first decays and then is renewed by the efforts of the residents.

Journey by Aaron Becker

Using a red marker, a young girl draws a door on her bedroom wall and through it enters another world where she experiences many adventures, including being captured by an evil emperor.

Clown by Quentin Blake

A toy clown is thrown away with some other old toys. He runs around trying to find someone to look after them all, but has no luck until he finds a young girl looking after a crying baby. After he makes the baby happy, the girl brings the toys home.

The snowman by Raymond Briggs

When his snowman comes to life, a little boy invites him inside and in return is taken on a flight high above the countryside.
Flora and the flamingo by Molly Schaar Idle

A friendship develops between a girl named Flora and a graceful flamingo, as they learn to dance together.

Float by Daniel Miyares

A boy loses his paper boat in the rain

A ball for Daisy by Christopher Raschka

The fun a dog has with her ball, and what happens when it is lost.

The boy, the bear, the baron, the bard, by Gregory Rogers

A boy loses a soccer ball in Shakespeare’s Globe theatre, only to find himself travelling through time, onto the stage and into the world of Shakespeare’s London. A comic romp through the streets of London follows featuring the boy, a grumpy bard, a captive bear and a baron whose head is bound for the chopping block.

The umbrella by Ingrid Schubert

A little dog finds an umbrella in the garden on a windy day. The moment the dog picks up the umbrella, it catches the wind and pulls the dog skywards. The wind carries the umbrella and the dog all over the world, from the desert to the sea, from the jungle to the North Pole.
The birthday cake mystery by Tjong Khing The

There are multiple stories in this book, based around preparations for a birthday party. But the monkeys are up to something, Dog’s birthday cakes keep getting ruined, and someone has stolen Mrs Pig’s necklace!

Chalk by Bill Thomson

Three children go to a park on a rainy day, find some chalk, and draw pictures that come to life.

Tuesday by David Wiesner

Frogs rise on their lily pads, float through the air, and explore the nearby houses while the residents sleep.

And a pictureless word book...

The book with no pictures by B J Novak

The reader of this book has to follow the words and read the story exactly as it is written.

Find these books in the catalogue, under author or title.